

Senator Todd Young represents Hoosiers in the United States Senate. He currently serves on the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, as well as the Senate Committees on Finance; Commerce, Science & Transportation; and Small Business & Entrepreneurship.

Todd is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland. He graduated with honors in 1995 and accepted a commission in the U.S. Marine Corps. In 2000, Todd was honorably discharged from the Marine Corps as a Captain. While serving in the Marines and working as a business consultant, Todd earned an MBA and his law degree.

In 2010, he ran for Congress and served three terms representing Indiana's 9th District. He was elected to the U.S. Senate in 2016. Since joining the Senate in 2017, Todd has developed a reputation as a conservative problem solver.

Todd married his wife Jenny in 2005 and they worked together at a small law firm in Paoli, Indiana started by Jenny's great-grandfather. Today, they reside in Johnson County, Indiana with their four children: a son, Tucker, and three daughters, Annalise, Abigail and Ava.
